

Surgical Treatment of Obstructive Sleep Apnea

- Uvulectomy
- Palatoplasty
- Uvulopalatopharyngoplasty (UPPP)
- Tonsillectomy
- Transpalatal Advancement
- Genioglossus Advancement (advancing a portion of the jaw and tongue forward)
- Hyoid Suspension (tightening and stiffening the walls of the throat)
- Tongue Base Reduction (removing a portion of the enlarged back of the tongue)
- Tongue Base Suspension (moving the back of the tongue forward and suspending it)
- Septoplasty
- Inferior Turbinate Submucous Resection
- Inferior Turbinate Reduction
- Functional Rhinoplasty (using cartilage grafting to support the external sidewalls of the nose to keep them from collapsing)